

Events in London

We meet every Wednesday evening, 7pm in central London, to discuss politics, study important political works – and have a drink afterwards. As well as studying Karl Marx's book 'Capital', we are collectively reading 'Revolutionary strategy - Marxism and the challenge of left unity', the new book by Mike Macnair. We also have regular public meetings. Everybody is welcome, student or non-student! Call Ben on 07522 408 657 if you want to come along.
